Enable Loans to be made to Industrial and Reformatory A.D. 1882.
Schools in Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the extension and promotion of public works in Ireland," it was amongst other things enacted that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works, acting in the execution of the said Act, to make loans or advances for works on security by writing obligatory alone upon the terms and conditions in said Act mentioned :

And whereas it is expedient to afford facilities for obtaining loans for the erection, enlargement, improvement, and purchase of buildings for industrial and reformatory schools in Ireland, and for the discharge of any debt incurred and due for such purposes :

And whereas for the purposes aforesaid it is expedient to amend the said revised Act, and to authorise the said Commissioners of 15 Public Works in Ireland to make loans to the amount upon the security and in the manner by this Act authorised :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Industrial and Reformatory Schools Loan (Ireland) Act.

2. This Act shall extend to Ireland only.

3. In this Act—

25 The term "the Board" shall mean "the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland";

The term "industrial school" shall mean a building, erected, occupied, used, and certified under the Industrial Schools [Bill 69.] A

(Ireland) Acts, and all buildings occupied by the teachers or other persons connected with such school, and the residences of such teachers or persons, and shall include all offices and inclosures used or occupied in connection with same :

The term "reformatory school" shall mean a building erected, 5 occupied, used, and certified under the Juvenile Reformatory (Ireland) Acts, and all buildings occupied by the teachers or other person connected with such school, and the residences of such teachers or person, and shall include all offices and inclosures used or occupied in connection with same. 10

Power to Board of Works to make loans.

4. It shall be lawful for the Board, with the sanction of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of the moneys issued or to be issued to them for the purposes of loans for public works in Ireland, to make loans to any person or persons of such sums as they shall think right and proper upon the security and subject to the conditions by 15
this Act authorised for all or any of the purposes following; (that is to say,)

1. The erection, enlargement, or structural improvement of an industrial school or a reformatory school :
2. The purchase of any building for the purpose of establishing, 20 enlarging, or extending an industrial school or a reformatory school :
3. The discharge of any debt due and incurred before the passing of this Act for the purposes aforesaid or any of them.

Repayment of loans.

5. Every loan which shall be made under the provisions of this 25
Act shall be repaid by the payment to Her Majesty of an annual sum of five pounds for every one hundred pounds of such loan from time to time advanced, and so on in proportion for any lesser amount, and to be payable for the term of thirty-five years, to be computed from the date of the advance in respect of which the said 30
annual sum shall be charged, such annual sum to be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the fifth day of April and tenth day of October in every year during the said term of thirty-five years, with such apportionment, if any, as may be necessary in respect of the first and last of such payments. 35

Insurance of premises subject to loan.

6. When any loan shall be made under this Act, the Board, if they think fit, may insure against damage by fire all buildings and erections then or thereafter standing or being on the lands, hereditaments, and premises charged with such loan, such insurance to be effected in such insurance office or company, and in such sum of 40 money not exceeding the amount of such loan, as the Board shall from time to time direct; and the Board shall keep on foot such insurance as aforesaid, and all premiums paid thereon by the Board shall be deemed to be included in all charges and securities whereby repayment of such loan shall be secured, and shall be forthwith 5 recoverable in like manner as any instalment of the rentcharge payable in respect of such loan.

7. In all cases of loans under this Act the Board shall make an order under their seal declaring that such loan has been made, and setting forth the amount of such loan, the names of the persons to 10 whom or on whose application the same has been made, and a description of the lands, hereditaments, buildings, and premises charged therewith; and such order may be in the form set forth in the Schedule to this Act, or to a similar effect.

Commissioners to make an order under their seal.

8. In all cases where the Board shall have made any such order
15 they shall execute under their common seal a duplicate thereof, and forthwith cause the said duplicate order to be lodged with the registrar of deeds in the office for registry of deeds in the city of Dublin, and the registrar of the said registry office, his and their assistants, deputies, and other officers shall register the same in the 20 same manner as any deeds or instruments are registered in said office, and shall enter a memorial thereof in the abstract books and indexes of or relating to memorials registered and kept in the said office, and shall return such registry in any search made in such registry office: Provided always, that no fees shall be payable in 25 respect of such registration.

Commissioners to register order for loan.

9. From the date of such order the lands, hereditaments, and premises therein mentioned shall become charged with the rentcharge to be payable in respect of any loan under this Act, and every such order shall be conclusive evidence of all facts stated 30 therein in pursuance of the provisions of this Act.

Premises to become chargeable with repayment of loan.

10. All the powers and provisions specified in the said Act passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the extension and promotion of public works in Ireland," or in the Act passed in the 35 tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, as to the recovery of rentcharges payable thereunder, shall extend and apply to the recovery of rentcharges charged under the provisions of this Act.

Provisions of former Acts to apply to this Act.
